

HOBOLink.com PRIVACY POLICY

Privacy Statement

Onset Computer Corporation ("Onset") holds the privacy of your personal information in the highest regard and is committed to protecting your privacy.

We have constructed our HOBOLink.com Web site (the "Site") so that you can visit certain Site data pages designated by Site users as public without identifying yourself or revealing any personal information. We may log IP addresses, ISPs, and browser types for internal quality assurance matters and to assess the technical capabilities of our Site. We also use standard technology called "cookies" and Web server logs. Cookies allow Web servers to recognize computers used to access a Web site. Information gathered through cookies and Web server logs may include date and time of visits, pages viewed, time spent at the Site, and the Web sites visited just before and just after our Site. This information is collected on an aggregate basis and is not used to identify you in particular. By visiting the Site, you agree to this collection of this information.

However, to upload data to the Site or to access or manipulate your uploaded data, you must register with the Site. In addition, you can choose to provide personal information to Onset in order to receive information about our products and services or to receive support regarding your use of the Site.

Web Site Registration

In order to register with the Site, you must agree to the HOBOLink Web Site Access License and Terms of Use ("TOU"), a copy of which is available at <http://www.onsetcomp.com/corporate/policies> Site registration requires that you provide certain identifying information to ensure that you may legitimately access the Site resources and that your uploaded data is accessible only to you and to those to whom you have granted access. In addition, if you elect to associate certain hardware with your Site account, you must agree to the Terms and Conditions for Use of Data Uploading Services agreement (the "Terms"), a copy of which is available at <http://www.onsetcomp.com/corporate/policies> To associate hardware with the Site according to the Terms, you will be required to provide us with certain information that identifies the hardware, its technical characteristics, and how it will interact with the Site.

How We Use Personal Information

When you do choose to provide personal information through our Web site, Onset may use your information to better understand your needs, to provide you with better service, and to protect you and us from fraud. Specifically, we may use it to provide you with technical assistance, to communicate back to you, and to update you on products, services and benefits (such as via newsletters, press releases, technical information, surveys, etc.). We do not sell or trade any of the provided information with other companies for marketing or sales purposes unless we are required to by law or as part of an acquisition or change of ownership (see below). We contract with other companies to provide certain services, including credit card processing, shipping, communications services including wireless network services, and Web site hosting and server operations services. We also contract with carefully selected mail houses to provide mailing services of Onset newsletters and other product information. We provide these companies with only the information they need to perform their services and work closely with them to ensure that your privacy is respected and protected. These companies are prohibited by contract from using this information for their own marketing purposes or from sharing this information with anyone other than Onset.

Opt-In / Opt-Out

You choose whether to receive information from Onset by filling out a registration form or emailing us. We do not send you information if you have elected not to receive it. You can choose to no longer receive information from us by choosing to unsubscribe at any time. Our unsubscribe requests are processed promptly. Users can unsubscribe, correct or update their information by sending email to us at update@onsetcomp.com.

General Information Security

Onset has invested in protective firewall technology to protect our information assets. We also require our communications services and Web site hosting and server operations providers to utilize similar protective firewall technology for the same purpose. The information that you provide is accessible only by Onset personnel and certain service providers, as described above. Further, we have a company non-disclosure policy which prohibits the distribution of customer contact information beyond Onset and those certain service providers.

Acquisition or Changes in Ownership of Onset Computer Corp.

In the event that Onset Computer Corporation or a substantial portion of its assets is acquired, customer information would be considered part of those assets, and may be part of those assets that are transferred.

Liability

We take commercially reasonable steps to protect the information that you provide to us. However, we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us. In the unforeseen and unlikely event that your private information is revealed, Onset Computer Corporation bears no liability for the disclosure or any subsequent damages.

Acceptance

By registering with the Site, a user accepts the terms of the HOBOLink.com Privacy Policy. Onset reserves the right to periodically make changes to this Privacy Policy from time to time and without direct notice to you.
